The administrative calendar will be called on the first day of each administrative week at 10:00 a.m. During probation weeks, there will be a calendar call for each day of the week. Absent extraordinary circumstances, cases should be addressed on the day they are calendared. The trial calendar will be called at 9:30 a.m. on the second day of each administrative week. Standalone trial sessions will hold calendar call beginning at 10:00 a.m. on the first day of the session.

The schedule listed above is subject to change based on the needs of the matters pending.

Administrative matters and pleas will be addressed on a time-certain basis. To accomplish this, counsel will be asked at calendar call when they would like to have their cases addressed during that session of court. Once a time is approved, the attorney and the defendant will be released and expected to return 15 minutes before the selected time with all paperwork completed and ready to have the case addressed. Attorneys and their clients are expected to have their personal calendars with them at calendar call. Counsel and the ADA assigned to a case may agree upon a time slot prior to calendar call. In that event, the Defendant and his or her counsel need not be present at calendar call and they can report to court at the selected time unless otherwise directed by the presiding Judge.

The Court may request that the District Attorney prepare a backup criminal trial calendar for a small number of sex offense cases, H&I felonies and misdemeanor appeals for the civil sessions of

January 12	April 13	July 13	October 12
February 9	May 11	August 10	November 9
